Sumber utama dalam penulisan skripsi ini perikop Yoh. 11:11-44, dan ditambah dengan buku-buku, jurnal, kamus, dokumen-dokumen Gereja, dan literatur-literatur lain yang berhubungan erat dengan kondisi iman umat pasca Covid-19.

Berdasarkan hasil studi kepustakaan penulis menunjukkan bahwa kebangkitan Lazarus bisa menjadi model kebangkitan iman umat. Badai Covid-19 menyadarkan umat akan kehadiran dan campur tangan Allah dalam kehidupan mereka. Berbagai cara dan upaya dilakukan umat untuk mendekati diri dengan Tuhan selama Covid-19 berlangsung. Hal ini terus berjalan sesudah pandemi Covid-19 karena umat meyakini bahwa Tuhan selalu menyertai perjalanan hidup mereka. ABSTRACT

Dionisius Dembo, 20.75.6781. The story of the resurrection of Lazarus in John 11:11-44 as a model for the revival of the faith of the people after the Covid-19 pandemic. Paper. Philosophy Study Program, Ledalero Institute of Philosophy and Creative Technology, 2024.

Writing this thesis has several objectives. First, obtain a bachelor's degree in philosophy at the Ledalero Institute of Philosophy and Creative Technology (IFTK) educational institution. Second, explaining the story of the resurrection of Lazarus as written in the Gospel of John 11:11-144. Third, describe a model for the post-Covid-19 revival of the faith of the people based on inspiration from the story of the resurrection of Lazarus.

The method used in writing this thesis is the library method. The main point of study in this thesis is based on the passage of John 11:11-44, about the story of the resurrection of Lazarus. The resurrection of Lazarus is the author's basis for reading about the revival of the faith of the people after the Covid-19 storm. The main source in writing this thesis is the passage of John 11:11-44, and added with books, journals, dictionaries, Church documents, and other literature that is closely related to the condition of the people's faith after Covid-19.

Based on the results of a literature study, the author shows that the resurrection of Lazarus could be a model for the revival of the faith of the people. The Covid-19 storm has made people aware of God's presence and intervention in their lives. People have made various ways and efforts to get closer to God during Covid-19. This continues after the Covid-19 pandemic because people believe that God always accompanies their life journey. Like Lazarus who came out of the tomb, believers, in their closeness to God, will be able to get out of situations of darkness and rise to live out their faith consistently.
